

Please do not allow cell phone use on commercial aircraft. It will create more of nuisance than it's worth, and make the flight attendant job more difficult. We will have to mediate arguments between those passengers talking loudly on their cell phones, and those who want peace and quiet. The public at large is incredibly rude and irresponsible as it is with cell phone use, let's not drag this behavior into the aircraft cabin.